VII. REQUIREMENTS AND MECHANICS

A. General Requirements

1. Use of copyrighted material is strictly prohibited. Participants will be liable for any claim of infringement related to the materials included in the entry.
2. Entries must be in a documentary genre, facts based.
3. Entries must revolve around children's food and nutrition.
4. Entries must not shorter than 3 minutes and not longer than 5 minutes for Children Division and 6 to 10 minutes for the Young Adult Division. (This includes Opening billboard and Closing credits. Please follow the required credits format at the end of the document.)
5. The production team does not include the cast of actors.
6. The production team of the Children Division entries must have at least one supervising adult (e.g. parent, faculty member, barangay official/employee, organization officer), a person of legal age whose role would be limited to logistical guidance (i.e., chaperone, minimal technical help, and guarantor of output's authenticity and compliance to fair use and copyright guidelines.) However, minimal supervision from adults is requested in all stages of production so that the outputs may reflect genuine talent, skills, and worldview of the participants.
7. No promotion or opposition of any product, person, service, or political beliefs.
8. Content must be child-friendly. Please see Appendix for the criteria of a child-friendly content or visit NCCT website for more details.
9. Participant/s can only submit one entry.

B. Audio and Video Requirements

1. Must have the minimum resolution of 720x480.

A television content which may not be specifically produced for viewing by children, but which serves to further the positive development of children and contain no elements that may result in physical, mental, and emotional harm to them. It includes various formats and genre that appeal to children and are made available for all ages.

A child-friendly television program shall meet the following criteria:

- a. Theme - The theme or underlying message of the program must be suitable for children. The program should not contain themes the portrayal or depiction of which are suitable only for adults such as adultery, concubinage, pornography, prostitution, incest, rape, fraud, robbery, gun running, arson, kidnapping, sedition, subversion, treason, betrayal of country, abortion, murder, euthanasia, , and other heinous crimes;
- b. Values - The important and fundamental beliefs of what is good or bad, right or wrong, desirable or undesirable, depicted in the program must not be contrary to the best interest of the Filipino child. The program must promote positive Filipino cultural values for emotional, moral, spiritual, mental, or physical development of the child. Filipino cultural values include respect for children toward other children, children toward adults, adults toward children, and adults toward adults, regardless of race, nationality, ethnicity, religion, gender, sexual preference, physical or mental disabilities. It must also display respect and care for the environment and other living beings;
- c. Dialogue - The dialogue, whether in words or gestures, must not promote or encourage children to speak or behave disrespectfully toward other persons or animals;
- d. Language - The language used, which could be oral or written, must not be vulgar, profane, offensive, sexually suggestive, derogatory or demeaning of a person or animal;
- e. Nutrition - Depictions or references to food and beverages, which could either be direct or implied, must not promote or condone unhealthy eating;
- f. Sex and Nudity - The program must not depict the female breast, genitalia, anus, butt, sexual act, or other images and acts that are sexually suggestive or appropriate only for adult audiences;
- g. Violence - There must be no depiction of behavior, attack, confrontation, clash, using or involving the use of physical force with the deliberate intent to damage, hurt, or kill someone or something, with likely effect of inducing or eliciting emotions in children, either of short-term or of great intensity, such as empathy, anger, elevated excitement, conditioned fear, nightmares, tantrums, desensitization, and other trauma-related symptoms.
- h. Substance Use - Scenes must not depict images and messages, with the aim, effect or likely effect of promoting, directly or indirectly, a tobacco company, tobacco brand, a tobacco product or tobacco use, heated tobacco products (HTPs), Electronic Nicotine Delivery Systems (ENDS), Electronic Non-Nicotine Delivery Systems (ENNDS), electronic cigarettes (e-cigarettes), electronic shisha (e-shisha) vapes, and other similar devices, alcohol, stimulants, narcotics, inhalants, depressants, and hallucinogens and other prohibited drugs and chemicals;
- i. Gambling - Scenes must not depict images or messages, directly or indirectly, of wagering of money or the betting or staking of something of value with consciousness of risk and hope of gain, on the outcome of a game, a contest, or an uncertain event whose result may be determined by chance or accident or have an unexpected result by reason of the bettor's miscalculation. It includes scenes that suggest wagering as a good or desirable act or behavior.<sup>1</sup>
