Dear Mr. dela Pena,

Good Day! The Geneva Office for Human Rights Education (GO-HRE) which is affiliated with Brigham Young University- Kennedy Center for International Studies is privileged to introduce to you Primary and Youth Manuals on Teaching the Rights of Children.

We have proposed this project to the Department of Education Central Office and are grateful for the approval to use the manuals to teach the rights of children in 3 areas in the Philippines for pilot testing.

We have determined the following date below for an orientation meeting with you. Another date is also set for the training of focal persons who would eventually teach the program to Filipino children as well as train other teachers. Ms. Carol Labrague, Project Development Officer, External Partnerships Service of the Department of Education Central Office will lead in the preliminary/orientation meeting as well as during the training for trainers. We hope you are available on the following proposed dates:

Orientation Meeting: April 5, 2:00 pm

Training for Trainers: April 29, 8:00 am-4:30 pm, Venue to be announced

GO-HRE aims to facilitate the teaching of these rights to children and youth through clear and achievable activities.

We look forward to working with you on this project. May God continually bless you in your service.
Thank you.

Sincerely,

Haidi F. Fajardo
