SUBJECT: Reiteration of Information Re: PSA Issued Copy and NSO Issued Copy of Birth Certificate are the same

Dear Dir. Bayocot:

This is to reiterate our letter sent to your office dated June 6, 2018 re: Civil Registry documents specifically the birth certificate required by the Department of Education (DepEd) upon enrollment or graduation of students of different schools and divisions in Region 10 (Northern Mindanao Region).

Once more, may we inform you that the birth certificate issued by the then NSO is the same as the birth certificate issued now by the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA). The birth certificate issued by this office has no expiration. Hence, it can be used for any legal purpose and reference. Thus, the NSO copy of birth certificate can be used for purposes of enrollment or graduation and there is no need to require the parents/students to secure a new one if they still have the original copy of the document with them.

We do hope that this information will be disseminated to all your Schools Division Superintendent (SDS), teachers and to the parents and students as well.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,
