DepEd Division Superintendent
Cagayan de Oro City

Dear DELA PEÑA,

Greetings of Peace!

The Oro Youth Development Council will initiate a program called #YOUthMatter that caters the promotion of the Students Rights and Welfare for both public and private schools in the tertiary and secondary level.

#YOUthMatter shall be an avenue for the youth in understanding the importance of having such in their respective schools and also for the students to develop a sense of reciprocity and similarity on such concerns. As such, this event shall be discussed to around 100 participants; wherein 50 of the participants will be coming from the tertiary level and the other 50 will come from the secondary level in which 20 will be from private schools and 30 will be from public institutions. The following topics will then be discussed in the said event : (1)Presentation of the Magna Carta Draft and (2)Students Rights and Welfare The activity shall commence in CDONHS-SHS. As such, here's the details.

1. August 24,2019 (8:00-12:00PM), Bulua National High School

With this, we are reaching out to your office for we are seeking for assistance in terms of the invitations of our participants especially in the secondary levels.

We truly believe that through this effort we will be able to help promote awareness among the youth of Cagayan de Oro in the aspect of their rights and welfare. For questions and queries please reach out to 0916-486-2609.

We hope this letter grants your positive response.
Thank you so much!

Sincerely,

MARY KRIS GEBÉ

Oro Youth Development Council, Co-Chair
