Dear Superintendent Dela Peña:

The Intellectual Property Office of the Philippines (IPOP HL) would like to thank the Department of Education-Cagayan De Oro for its full support to the IPOP HL Young IP Advocates (YIPA) program by sending twenty (20) schools to participate in our activities. Part of it will be the conduct of the IP Youth Camp on October 10-11 back to back with the FUn IP (Families United in IP) on October 12 at the Saddle Ridge Camp, Dahilayan, Bukidnon.

Saddle Ridge Camp was chosen to be the venue as this is most appropriate for our activities. Please note that vehicles to and from Cagayan De Oro have been arranged for all our participants. Specifically, vehicles will stand by City Central School, Don Apolinar Velez St. on October 10, from 7am to 8am to pick up participants. Also, as mentioned, accommodation, meals, and transportation expenses will be shouldered by IPOP HL.

Again, we thank you for DepEd's assistance and support to IPOP HL's youth program.

Sincerely,

Mary Grace Cruz-Yap

Schools Division Superintendent
Department of Education-Cagayan De Oro

Dear Superintendent Dela Peña:

One of the Strategic Goals of the Intellectual Property Office of the Philippines (IPOP HL) is to increase the level of appreciation of, respect for, and utilization of intellectual property (IP). IPOP HL believes that the youth, being potential creators, inventors, and artists in the future, should be educated early on the relevance of IP. As it is in secondary education where students begin to do research and are being prepared to choose their own careers, the IPOP HL would like to empower and inspire students in the secondary level to be more creative and innovative, and help them imbibe respect for the IP rights of others and value their own creation at school and in the future.

To pursue this objective, IPOP HL initiated to organize the Young IP Advocates (YIPA) in 2013. It aims to bring together select students coming from secondary schools in one venue. Through a 2-day IP youth camp, the YIPAs are provided with information, orientation, and workshop exercises on understanding and appreciating IP.

In this regard, we would like to invite the Secondary Schools in Cagayan De Oro City, especially those that are science and technology-based and inclined in arts, to send three of their youth leaders, preferably 8th or 9th grade students, and one faculty member per school as participants in this activity. Further, a one-day fun activity with the families of participating students will also be organized after the two-day Camp. The IP Youth Camp is scheduled on October 10-11 back to back with the FUn IP (Families United for IP) activity on October 12 in Cagayan De Oro with the exact venue to be communicated with you shortly. IPOP HL will shoulder cost of meals and accommodation of participants during the events. Attached with this letter is the confirmation sheet.

Ms. Jho Santiago will communicate with your office for further details of the activities or you may reach her at telephone no. (02) 856-3852 or email her at jojamsan@gmail.com.

Thank you and we look forward to Cagayan De Oro's participation in our programs.

Sincerely,

Mary Grace Cruz-Yap
