Test Administration and Registration Guidelines

1. The regional EPSs (REPS) shall consolidate the Test Questions developed by the Test Developers last June 15-19, 2020, after the capacity building conducted before test construction.
2. The REPS shall ensure that questions are aligned with the competencies in the MELCS.
3. Once the Test questions are consolidated, the REPS shall finalize the Test Questions intended for Grades 3, 6, 10, and 12.
4. There shall be 30 items per subject for Grades 3 and 6 while Grades 10 and 12 have 50 items per subject.
5. Each subject area test shall be allocated at most 45minutes for Grade 6 and 1 hour for Grades 10 and 12.
6. The REPS shall then conduct a validation of test questions to schools not part of the regionwide assessment.
7. After the validation, the REPS shall encode the test questions to the Google Forms to prepare for an online, face-to-face examination for Grades 6, 10, and 12 while the Grade 3 shall have paper and pen, face-to-face examination.
8. After implementing the sampling procedure, the identified sample schools shall prepare testing rooms with 30 sets of computers connected to the internet for Grades 6, 10, and 12 while the Grade 3 pupils' testing shall be set for paper and pen test setup.
9. All identified test-takers shall pre-register using the official DepEd email at least one month before the examination. Links for the registration shall be provided to all DTCs.
10. REPS and Regional ITO shall be the only assigned personnel to open and close the exam links.
11. The Quality Assurance Division EPS shall also prepare an activity evaluation in Google Forms to have feedback from test-takers, testing personnel, school heads, teachers, and parents to improve further the conduct of the examination.
