Greetings of Peace!

The Kaabag sa Kalambuan pinaagi sa Kabtangan sa Katilingban (K4K4), a project of Xavier Science Foundation, Inc. and working with ChildFund Philippines, will be hosting the Adolescents Sexual Reproductive Health (ASRH) Forum on November 22-24, 2022 at the Xavier Estates Sports and Country Club, Mastersons Avenue, Cagayan de Oro City. The overall objective of the ASRH forum is to scale up practices on adolescent health and development programs that are culture and gender sensitive and addressing the current pressing concerns affecting adolescents and youth.

Specifically, the 3-day ASRH aims to:

- a. Share and learn from documented and tested “stories from the field” or best practices from ChildFund partners, government agencies and CSOs implementing school and community-based partnership ASRH program.
- b. Discuss and identify potential regional/joint scaling-up of shared best practices
- c. Sharing of children and youth-led digital Program delivery innovations as examples of effective learning actions in support for an effective ASRH programming.

Participants of the ASRH forum are local partners of ChildFund Philippines, their partner agencies and CSOs in NCR, Regions 5,6,9,10 and BARMM.

Part of the Forum activity is the learning/benchmarking visits to school based teen centers on November 23, 2022. Hence, we would like to request the following schools to host the visit:
