1. Responding to the communication from the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) dated August 25, 2022 and regarding the continuous implementation of the agency's Assistance to Individuals in Crisis Situation (AICS) program by providing aid to individuals and families seeking assistance for medical, food, transportation, education, and other support services, this Office enjoins all Schools Division Offices (SDOs), particularly the division focal persons for scholarships or educational assistance to urgently submit a division-consolidated repository of information for students with existing educational assistance scholarship program for SY 2022-2023 (including but not limited to 4Ps beneficiaries, IP beneficiaries, and others) on or before September 9.

2. This gathering of data also aims to establish a repository of data for the learners who are beneficiaries of the different educational assistance programs and, therefore, generate timely and comparative school performances of these learners when it comes to education access, efficiency, and quality. Henceforth, this initiative will help promote more inter-agency collaborations and partnerships to enhance the education services in DepEd Northern Mindanao.

3. All consolidated data reports shall be uploaded through Google Drive at <https://bit.ly/3cCAOz4>. Also, the template to be followed can be downloaded through: <https://bit.ly/3B2YLJh>.

Dear Director Bayocot:

Greetings!

The Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD), continues to implement the Assistance to Individuals in Crisis Situation (AICS) program by providing aid to individuals and families seeking assistance for medical, food, transportation, education, and other support services.

The DSWD, under the directives of the head of agency, is executing a 6-week program to grant educational cash assistance to its beneficiaries. Under the AICS guidelines on the provision of educational assistance, those students with existing scholarship grants/incentives from other government and private agencies are excluded to avail of the said assistance.

With this, we respectfully and urgently request for a copy of the list of names of scholars who are currently served by DepEd's scholarship program. The said list will serve as the repository of information for students or individuals with existing scholarship program hence, this will help ensure that only qualified individuals or students may avail of the AICS Educational Assistance.

Attached herewith is the sample template to fill in the names and other information of the scholars under the agency. Furthermore, may we request to submit the template to arielbmyael@gmail.com on or before August 26, 2022 in a soft copy excel format.

For further inquiries, please contact Mr. Ariel V. Santiago, Institutional Partnership Focal Person for Pantawid Pamilya, at landline number, 565-5795 local 123 or at 0977-061-8215.

Thank you very much.

Respectfully yours,

RAMEL F. JAMENO
