SDS CHERRY LIMBACO-REYES, PhD

Department of Education
Cagayan de Oro City

Dear Dr. Limbaco-Reyes,

Greetings!

We would like to invite you and members of your staff to join us in the 8th Magiting Conference “Malay Natin: Kabataang Magiting sa Nagbabagong Panahon” on March 4, 2023, Saturday, 1:30-4pm at the Centrio Mall Cinema 1, Cagayan De Oro City.

Ayala Foundation, through its Maging Magiting program, advocates love of country and recognizes that every Filipino has it in them to be heroes. A key component of the program is the Magiting Conference, a series of thought-provoking conversations and informative and entertaining presentations, to awaken participants’ deep love for their country while also inspiring them to transform this deep love into meaningful action.

As the Philippines celebrates its 125th year of Independence and Nationhood, Ayala Foundation commits to organize three Magiting Conferences drawing inspiration from the theme of the national commemoration – “Kalayaan. Kinabukasan. Kasaysayan.”

The first of the series is entitled “Malay Natin: Kabataang Magiting sa Nagbabagong Panahon.” Malay Natin is a play on the popular Filipino phrase that expresses optimism amidst doubt. It can also be literally roughly translated as “our consciousness,” highlighting that the Magiting Conference is a conversation on what we know and unearthing what we do not know about the role of the youth – past and present, in fighting for our independence.

Our speakers for this event are Professor Maris Diokno, Professor Emerita of the Department of History in University of the Philippines Diliman, and Director Jerrold Tarog, director, screenwriter, producer, best known for his works Heneral Luna and Goyo. The conversation will be moderated by PJ Hernandez, or The Traveling Salakot, a social science teacher who offers free history tours around Manila.

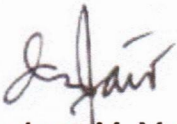

The event will be held live in the Ayala Museum in Makati and livestreamed all over the Philippines via watch parties, including the cinema screening at Centrio Mall in Cagayan De Oro City.

In addition to the Magiting Conference proper, you are also invited to a special program that will open and close the Centrio watch party to highlight the inspiring contribution of CDO youth in local initiatives with national impact.

As there are limited seats, we'd like to hear from you on or before March 2, 2023, Thursday, to reserve your seats. You can confirm your seats at 0917 7718720 or email at tagalog.jz@ayalafoundation.org.

We look forward to seeing you.

Respectfully,
