DR. ROY ANGELO E. GAZO, CESO V
Schools Division Superintendent
DepEd Division of Cagayan de Oro City

Dear Dr Gazo::

Magis greetings!

Recognizing the demands of online education in the new normal, TechFactors, Inc. in partnership with the Society for Technology in Education Philippines (STEP) and Xavier University - Basic Education, will host a virtual conference for educators on July 20 to 22, 2023. The theme of this three-day online event is Technology in Transformative Times. The conference is given 10 Continuing Professional Development (CPD) units under PROG-2023-58237 accreditation by PRC.

To help us STEP into the next, we've created 3 distinct themes to structure our 3-day conference. Informed by conversations with Basic Education leaders and discussions with our STEP Board, these themes are designed to highlight Technology, Transformation, and the Call of Times. It would truly be an honor to be the host for STEP2023. This two-and-a-half-day conference is about exploring new tech tools, resources, and promising practices that leverage technology, experiencing the use of digital tools through hands-on experience to maximize active, and deep learning, and empowering every educator to do innovation in today's rapidly changing world.

In this light, we are inviting the educators from the public and private schools to attend Technology in Transformative Times EdTech Conference 2023. The conference fee is PhP650.00 for regular participants with payments made from July 1 to July 19. For registration and payment details, participants may visit this link https://bit.ly/XU-STEP2023Registration.

For more information and inquiries about registration, kindly email us at step-helpdesk@xu.edu.ph.

We earnestly look forward to a learning-filled and collaborative partnership as we keep ourselves abreast of technological advancements in a fast-paced world.

Sincerely,

Ms Pamela Q Pajente, PhD
XUJHS Principal/ STEP Board Member
