PLAGIARISM POLICY

on 2024 City-Level Young Artists and Authors Showcase (YAAS)

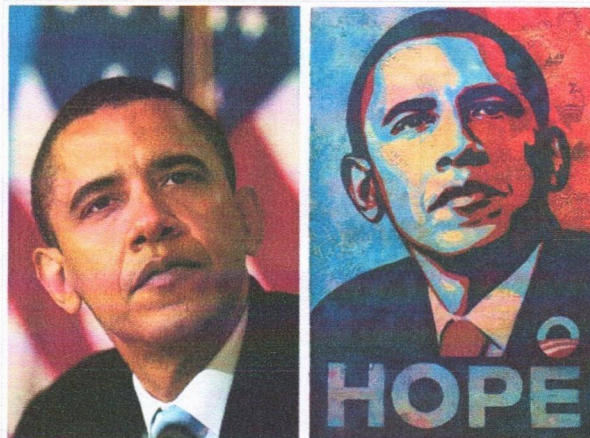

A simple definition of plagiarism from the Merriam-Webster Dictionary is “to steal and pass off the ideas or words of another as one’s own.” This concept can be applied to writing, art, and photography among other artistic mediums. Therefore, it applies to all submissions to Sister Cities International’s Young Artists Showcase and Young Authors Showcase. While we realize that many works of art draw on inspiration from others, every submission will be thoroughly evaluated for originality.

Submissions based on photographs or other two-dimensional art that was not created by the submitting artist must include express written consent for use from the original creator of the art on which the submission was based. Any submissions determined to have plagiarized the work of others will be rejected.
